

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES.

NEW LONDON COUNTY

LEDYARD

Rev. W. F. White officiated at Minidale funeral for Seventh Time During Local Pastorate—Grange Interests.

Miss Mabel Smith, a grange worker, visited Palmerton grange on Wednesday evening and saw the initiation of four candidates.

D. Taylor went to Hartford on Thursday to bring home a valuable horse which he is to keep for his son-in-law.

Returns from Minidale.

Rev. W. F. White returned Tuesday evening from Minidale, N. H., where he had been to officiate at a funeral. This is the seventh time Mr. White has been called back to Minidale to officiate at funerals since he has been pastor of the Ledyard Congregational church.

Teacher Ill.

School in District No. 2 has been closed on account of the illness of Edward S. Lawler, the teacher.

Charles A. Gray was a business caller in Myrtle Friday.

Mr. Perkins of the Danbury schools has been visiting the various schools in town during the past week.

Mr. Phillips and his wife from Norwich town have moved into the Geor cottage.

Miss Laura Perkins, who has been very ill, is a little better.

Representative William I. Allen was an over Sunday guest of friends in New York.

Prof. Wheeler Addresses Grange.

Ledyard grange held its regular meeting on Saturday evening. Prof. Wheeler of Storrs college gave an interesting talk on his trip through the west and north. He had made to see the location through which he traveled. He was given a rising vote of thanks, after which refreshments were served by the ladies.

First Selectman S. E. Holdridge was a business caller in Hartford on Wednesday.

Dual Birthday Celebration.

The Ledyard Aid society met at the parsonage Wednesday afternoon. More were present than usual, it being the birthday of Mrs. Isaac G. Geor and Mrs. Mrs. M. Gray, both members of the society. After the customary work had been finished, Mrs. Geor was called to the telephone and there delayed some time. During her absence the ladies prepared a lunch of cake, sandwiches, tea and coffee.

On her return she was greatly surprised to find a table all set, with cut flowers in the center, and flowers at both Mrs. Geor and Mrs. Gray's plates. Both received gifts from various members. A complimentary poem was composed and read by Miss Edith White.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. William I. Allen and two children were calling on friends in Myrtle Sunday.

Mrs. Adam Larabee of Windham is the guest of her father, Dwight Gallup.

James B. Gray and Luther C. Gray attended Connell's auction in Lisbon Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Enos M. Gray and son were guests Thursday of Mrs. Isabella McKenzie.

PRESTON

Patriotic Programs at Daymen's Institute—Auction—Personal.

Henry DeWolf and son, Walter Lee, of Salem, were recent callers at the home of R. M. Harding, as were also his cousins, Charles Latham and son Louis of Pachaug.

Several from here attended the auction at M. J. Connelley's Tuesday.

A daymen's institute was held at Preston City with the following programme: Address of welcome, E. L. Barnes; response, G. Warren Davis; address, The Rev. Dr. George M. Twitcheil; recess; lunch served by the ladies of the grange; address, Breeding, Feeding and the Care of the Dairy Herd, Fred Trueman; address, A Plain Story from the Cornfield, Dr. George M. Twitcheil.

Local Social Notes.

R. Matheo and his wife and pair of fancy pointed Devon stags last week.

Harold Latham of Pachaug spent a few days with Charles Burdick.

Mrs. Florence Wilson of Windham was a week end visitor at Mrs. Ogden Stanton's.

WATERFORD

Prospects of Early Settlement at Quarries—Interest in Annexation Hearing.

Mrs. Owen C. Williams was a caller in New London Tuesday.

James C. Smith was a Black Point caller Thursday.

E. B. Young was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary A. Littlefield spent Wednesday with Mrs. W. L. Driscoll.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Trueman and daughter have changed residence to Jordan.

Cecil Gallup was a Granville caller Wednesday.

Quarry Settlement Probable.

It is expected that an early settlement will be made at the Neck, and Millstone quarries, which will permit business to run on smoothly for three or five years.

Adelbert Douglass is able to be out after a serious illness.

A. S. Brahm is getting his winter wood home these few days.

Sherwood Perkins and Miss Arline

A Pierce Night Alarm

is the house, startling cough of a child, suddenly called to the aid of a it aroused Lewis Chamberlain of Manchester, O. (R. R. No. 2), for their four children were greatly subject to croup.

"Sometimes," said the father, "I have wrote, "we were afraid they would die but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble. So do thousands of others. So may you. Adams,

Hay Fever, La Grippe, Whooping

Cough, Hemorrhages, fly before it. 50c and 1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold by

Lee & Osgood Co.

A Special Medicine for Kidney Ailments.

Many elderly people have found

Foley's Kidney Remedy a quick relief and permanent benefit from kidney and bladder ailments and from annoying urinary irregularities due to advancing years. Isaac N. Regan, Farmer, Mo.,

says: "Foley's Kidney Remedy effected

a complete cure in my case, and I want others to know of it." Lee &

Osgood Co.

There is no advertising medium in

Western Connecticut equal to The Bulletin.

NORWICH BULLETIN, SATURDAY, MARCH 17, 1911.

none along the mail route thus far this season.

Benjamin Wilcox is slowly convalescing from her serious illness. There are yet many cases of grip and colds.

WINDHAM

Death of Edmund P. Kenyon—Fruit from Florida—Personal Items.

In the death of Edmund P. Kenyon, Wednesday, Windham has lost one of her oldest and most respected citizens. Mr. Kenyon was a member of the Congregational church, and as long as his health permitted was a regular attendant at all services and was to be found in his place at the mid-week prayer meetings, where his words of encouragement and helpfulness were always welcome. Mr. Kenyon was an earnest Christian man and a good citizen and neighbor, interested in everything that pertained to the welfare of the town.

Happenings of the Week.

Dr. Guild's chauffeur is sick with grip and rheumatism and is under the care of a nurse.

Mrs. John Bates is in Westfield, Mass., with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Albert Saunders.

Miss Grace Bates was the guest this week of Miss Ida Webster in New Haven and attended the missionary jubilee.

Rev. W. M. Brown preached in Hampton Sunday.

Mrs. Hazard is entertaining her mother.

Friends of L. J. Hammond have received oranges and grape fruit this week from his grove in Winter Haven, Fla.

Missionary Meeting.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society met with Mrs. W. F. Maine Thursday afternoon. The third chapter of Western Women in Eastern Lands was studied; the topic being: "Missionaries at Work."

W. F. Maine was in Jewett City Sunday afternoon looking after the home of Mrs. Maine's aunts, which caught fire Sunday morning.

Mrs. M. A. Boland and Miss Anna Engstrom of Franklin were guests at Miss Sarah Johnson's Wednesday.

Mrs. John Beckwith is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Collins.

The subject of Rev. H. C. Grimes' sermon Sunday will be: "The Fatherhood of God," Mat. 6:3, the first in a series of Lenten sermons.

The ladies of the church met Sunday evening with George A. Cook. Subject: First Aid for the Tempted; Heb. 2:14:8.

South Woodstock.

Young People's League Makes Gift to Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Morton—Decision Sunday Observed.

The funeral of Mrs. Marion Knight, who died suddenly at West Woodstock on the 25th ult., at the Weaver farm, was held Monday at 2 o'clock.

Rev. L. M. Curtis officiating. A quartette, Miss Ella Sandstrom, Mrs. Ellen Wells, Frank Wright and the pastor, sang "Asleep in Jesus." Burial was in Grove street cemetery in Putnam.

Gift from League.

Last Friday night the Young People's league spent an evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Morton at the Howland homestead, it being planned as a surprise on the young couple. The time passed happily, with games and refreshments. A gift of silver teaspoons was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Morton by the league.

Decision Sunday.

Decision Sunday was observed successfully. The morning discourse was by Rev. L. M. Curtis, on "The Pass Over the Other Side." In the Sunday school a good number expressed their desire to live the Christian life.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

Many friends who have regretted that Jonas Lawson and family were to move from their home in the town of South Woodstock, have been glad to hear that they have decided to remain.

BROOKLYN

Mr. and Mrs. Fields Going to Panama Before Returning—Baptist Pastor on Vacation—Woman's Club Meets.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bennett, having sold their place, have removed to Colchester.

Mrs. D. B. Hatch and daughter, Clara B., are spending a few weeks in New York.

D. B. Hatch is visiting his son in New York.

Fields-White Wedding.

Albert S. Fields and Miss Alice R. White were united in marriage on Thursday, March 24, at the bride's home by Rev. Charles A. Downs, pastor of the Congregational church.

The bride received many presents of silver cut glass and pictures. The bride was given away by her only brother, Philip White of Cleveland, Ohio.

The bride and groom will leave for their wedding trip to New York and from there will sail for Jamaica and Panama, returning home by way of New Orleans, expecting to be gone for a month.

Mrs. John Fallon and daughter, Helen L., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. De Witt C. Pratt.

Pastor on Vacation.

There was no preaching service Sunday in the Baptist church, the pastor taking his vacation and preaching in a Baptist church on Long Island.

The B. P. Y. U. was led in the evening by its president, L. W. Chapman; subject, "The Church of the Future," based on the parable of the fig tree.

There was a large attendance.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

MOOSUP

Funeral of Adelbert Chapman—People's Theater Stage Finely Fitted.

The funeral of Mrs. Adelbert Chapman was held last Wednesday morning from All Hallows church, requiem high mass being celebrated. Mrs. Chapman was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lavelle and was born in Moosup 40 years ago. She married Adelbert Chapman nearly 25 years ago. She leaves three children, Clarence, Fannie and Eugene, all at home. She had been in poor health for a number of years, suffering from a complication of diseases, but she was able to attend to her household duties till Saturday night, the end coming suddenly Sunday afternoon.

The bearers were her six nephews, Alvin, Joseph J., Joseph W. and Alfred Lavelle, Frank Bado and William Theoux. There was a large number of floral offerings from relatives and friends. Burial was in the family lot in All Hallows cemetery.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the family of Charles Peterson, Viola, a small child, is being kept at home. The health officer has placed the family under strict quarantine.

Last Tuesday William Sprague sold a pair of horses to Harry Zoonman for $700.

Equipment for People's Theater.

A scenic artist of Providence has just completed painting a parlor, kitchen, and dining room for the People's theater, just erected in Moosup, also various drop curtains with wood and asbestos, so that in case of fire on the stage the curtain can be dropped and protect the audience. It is hung on a system of pulleys and can be raised or lowered by means of a hand crank. There are 30 electric lights on the stage, which has been arranged in a most effective manner. The cost of about seven hundred dollars.

Home Quarantined.